MUNDY
IMELDA MAY

DECEMBER 30TH
THE HUB, CILLIN HILL, KILKENNY

MIG Live presents, Sharon Shannon, Shane MacGowan, Mundy and Imelda May at the Hub, Cillin Hill, Kilkenny, this December 30th. With the phenomenally popular Irish hit “Galway Girl”, the biggest selling single in years performed by both Mundy and Sharon and the most popular Christmas song ever “Fairytale of New York” performed by Shane MacGowan, this promises to be one of the biggest nights out this Christmas.

Multi Platinum selling Sharon Shannon uses a unique blend of traditional Irish music, reggae, bluegrass, blues, soul, gospel and world music to entertain her audiences around the world.

Singer-songwriter Mundy began his musical career busking on the streets of Dublin and showcasing his talents at the capital's various open mic nights. Thirteen years later and Mundy is a multi-platinum artist who has toured the world and performed with legends such as Van Morrison, The White Stripes, Neil Diamond, Alanis Morissette and Oasis.

Ex-Pogues front man Shane MacGowan whole-heartedly embraced the punk movement and has enjoyed a controversial career ever since that has seen him share stages. He has been one of the most influential figures in songwriting since the mid 1980s and has penned some classic songs down through the years, such as “A Rainy Night in Soho”, “A Pair of Brown Eyes” and, of course, that all time classic “Fairytale of New York”.

Imelda May, is an Irish female vocalist from the Liberties, in Dublin. Specialising in Rockabilly music, she has a repertoire of covers and self-penned songs. Since last year, May's career has gone into overdrive. Signing to Universal Music, the sultry songstress has dominated the Irish album charts for the last 8 months. Her stunning number one double platinum selling debut “Love Tattoo” has remained in the top 12 for 29 weeks, with hit singles “Johnny’s Got a Boom Boom” and “Big Bad Handsome Man”.
